

ORDER INFORMATION*

Training	Qty:	Price:
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Registration Information:

Name _____	Title or Position _____
Agency Name _____
Address _____
City _____	State _____ Zip Code _____
Email Address _____
Phone Number _____	Fax Number _____

Method of payment: Pre-payment is required.

- ☐ Check enclosed payable to Domestic Abuse Intervention Programs.
☐ Bill my credit card: ☐ Visa ☐ MC ☐ AmEx ☐ Discover

Card #: _____

Exp. Date: _____ Security code: _____

Print Cardholder Name: _____

Signature: _____

Submit order to:

Domestic Abuse Intervention Programs
National Training Project
202 East Superior Street
Duluth, MN 55802
Fax: 218-722-0779 Phone: 866-417-6111, option 1

ORDER ONLINE AT: www.theduluthmodel.org

*You may purchase the Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter curriculum only if you have attended a Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter training presented by the Domestic Abuse Intervention Project

The most-widely used curriculum for working with men who batter describes how to facilitate a men's nonviolence program.

THE CURRICULUM INCLUDES:

Facilitator's Manual

The facilitator's manual describes :
Duluth Theory, Program Components, Curriculum Content—up to 30 weeks, How to facilitate, Importance of linkage to justice system, Ideas for interface with battered women's groups.

Power and Control: Tactics of Men Who Batter DVD

Twenty-four newly crafted short vignettes depict tactics used by abusers against their partners. The vignettes correspond to the themes in the curriculum.

Power and Control: A Woman's Perspective DVD

Women speak to how the Power and Control Wheel tactics were used against them; Men remember their own use of power and control; background for facilitators on the impact of battering offers class participants insights into how their violence is affecting their partners.

Facilitating a Men's Nonviolence Class DVDs (Set of 4)

Videos show actual men's nonviolence classes and demonstrates how to: start a class, use the Control Log/Equality Log and lead role-plays. Each segment followed by Duluth staff explaining the "why's and how's" of their work.

Power and Control Wheel Poster, 22" x 20"

Equality Wheel Poster, 22" x 20"

PRICE:

Full curriculum $595

CPC Training Participant special pricing.....$450

use code CPR in the promotional code box if ordering online

CREATING A PROCESS OF CHANGE FOR MEN WHO BATTER TRAINING

October 7—9, 2014
Las Vegas, NV

domestic abuse
intervention programs

Home of The Duluth Model
Social Change to End Violence Against Women

CREATING A PROCESS OF CHANGE FOR MEN WHO BATTER TRAINING

This valuable training is the prerequisite for buying and using Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter, the world's most renowned curriculum for helping men identify and change beliefs that support using violence against women. The curriculum and our trainers' methods are grounded in the Duluth Model, a constantly evolving philosophy and practice based in the Domestic Abuse Intervention Program's work to end men's violence against women through a coordinated community response.

This training is perfect for:

- Anyone starting a batterer intervention program
- Who is new to men's non-violence group facilitation
- Anyone who would like to refresh their insight and information

We strongly encourage anyone who is using early versions of the curriculum, or parts or adaptations of more-recent versions, to join us.

All training leaders are experienced Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter group facilitators. The topics they cover include:

- Understanding the theories that guide the curriculum.
- Facilitating structured, interactive classes
- Establishing and maintaining dialogue while avoiding collusion
- Using control logs, exercises including role plays, and video vignettes
- Helping men identify and change beliefs that support violence
- Learning how a Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter program fits with a Duluth Model interagency coordinated community response.

Las Vegas, NV
October 7—9, 2014

Training location:

Smart Choices—914 S Valley View, Las Vegas, NV 89107.

Dress is casual

Schedule:

Registration begins at 8:00am on Tuesday, Oct. 7th. Training days will run from 8:30am-4:30pm. As the training content builds on itself throughout the course of the training, please arrange your accommodations and travel to ensure your participation in the full training. Snacks and beverages will be provided. Lunch is on your own.

Cost:

$395 for coalition members
$500 for other participants

To register:

- go to www.theduluthmodel.org to register online
- Or call 1866-417-6111 #1 to register over the phone
- You may also use the provided registration form and fax or email

If you have any questions please contact the DAIP National Training Project Staff
Karen Kjolhaug—218-722-2781 X 126
Karin Sollom—218-722-2781 X 117